

SHARE YOUR STORY INSPIRE OTHERS

By volunteering with Global Volunteers, you've already done something extraordinary. The children around the world are closer to reaching their full potential because of your generous help. Now there is an opportunity for you to help exponentially. And it is as simple as just sharing your unique story!

We want to tell the world what you've done! Your first-hand stories as a Global Volunteer are our best resource to recruit more volunteers to serve children and families around the world. Tell us your story. Inspire others to follow in your footsteps.

Please share your story on the reverse side of this form. Use additional paper as needed.

STAY CONNECTED ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Please answer questions on reverse side.

What has this service experience meant to you? Please be as specific as possible – what relationships did you form? What did you learn about the culture? Is this different from what you expected? Please describe a surprising or memorable moment, and any one individual who made a strong impression on you. How do you think your experience advances understanding between cultures?

How did you contribute to the partner community? What was your primary service assignment? What did you learn about yourself through this project? How does this service program differ from other types of travel you've done? How will you describe this experience when you return home?

I give permission to Global Volunteers to use photographs of me and my comments from this form and the team journal for release to the media and for other promotional uses. I grant to Global Volunteers all interests, including royalties, proceeds, and other benefits derived from such photographs or comments.
